Our teachers

Diane

Cambridge Examiner - Educational Coordinator

A graduate in English literature, Diane holds CELTA, CUL, and TKT qualifications (Teacher Knowledge Test grade 4). With 27 years of extensive teaching experience in primary school (CLIL), she specializes in preparing high school students and adults for Cambridge and IELTS exams. Diane is also proficient in Business English and currently serves as an examiner for Cambridge University Assessment. Her engaging teaching method focuses on effective communication with students from diverse backgrounds and varying skill levels. Diane is a highly skilled professional with a proven ability to teach, motivate, and guide students toward their best performances, fostering a positive and stimulating learning environment. She looks forward to meeting you all.

Aidan

Teacher, musician and artist

Originally from the Scottish Highlands and with a rich background in musical theatre, Aidan has enchanted audiences in cities across Scotland and Canada. While teaching English during the pandemic, he brought a unique twist to language education. In addition to teaching, Aidan holds a degree in audio production from the S.A.E Institute and triumphed at the Gaelic folk festival, 'The Mod'. Aidan believes that the emotional resonance of musical expression, whether through singing, theatre, or the art of drag, serves as a catalyst for promoting empathy, tolerance, and meaningful connections. He is excited to share his unique blend of artistry and soulful expression with all of you.

Katie

English Language Teacher

Katie is a passionate, motivated, and innovative English language teacher with an outgoing and friendly personality who loves working with young people. She has a deep passion for music, plays various instruments, and is enthusiastic about theatre. As a director and presenter for a popular YouTube ESL channel with over one million subscribers, Katie firmly believes that learning should take place in a stimulating environment where everyone can contribute their own knowledge and skills. She is eager to engage all of you with her dynamism.

Our teachers

Joanna
